

2019 Energy Year
in Review

Akin Gump
STRAUSS HAUER & FELD LLP

Dear Clients and Friends,

2019 was a momentous year for the energy sector: The U.S. became a net oil exporter for the first time in recorded history and at the same time energy dropped to less than five percent of the S&P 500 Index. With the precipitous drop in commodity prices and macroeconomic volatility triggered by the oil price war and COVID-19 pandemic, 2020 presents challenges and change for the global and domestic energy sectors. We thank all of our valued clients and look forward to working with you to anticipate and solve problems and capitalize on industry and global trends.

In this volatile and evolving environment, Akin Gump practitioners worked alongside industry players to achieve their goals domestically and across geographies in both traditional hydrocarbon and renewable energy markets.

Thanks to our clients' trust in our industry knowledge and dealmaking skills, we had the honor of advising on energy deals totaling more than $50 billion last year, including these blockbuster transactions:

- Partners Christine LaFollette and Jeffrey Kochian advised SRC Energy Inc. in its $1.7 billion strategic combination with PDC Energy, Inc.
- Partners Matthew Nesburn, John Marciano and Gregory Lavigne led the team that represented AES Distributed Energy, Inc. in the structuring and financing of the Lāwa'i Solar and Energy Storage Project—the first solar plus storage peaker plant and largest operational plus storage installation. The deal was shortlisted as the "Battery Storage Deal of the Year" for the IJGlobal Awards 2019.
- Partners Seth Molay and John Goodgame advised Rattler Midstream LP in its $765 million initial public offering—one of the largest energy IPOs in 2019 and one of very few in recent years.
- Akin Gump Dubai partner in charge Mac Fadlallah represented EGA—the world's fifth-largest aluminum producer—and its wholly owned subsidiary GAC in the largest-ever greenfield mining project financing in Guinea, involving a $750 million credit facility. This deal was named Project Finance International's Multilateral Deal of the Year.
- Partners Steve Davis and Paul Greening advised Anadarko, as the operator and lead developer of the Mozambique LNG Project, in the signing of a sale and purchase agreement with JERA Co., Inc. in Japan and CPC Corporation in Taiwan.

Bolstering our ability to support clients wherever they do business, we added tremendous talent to our worldwide energy team in 2019, including Matt Kapinos (Houston), who focuses on project development and energy infrastructure; Sam Kamyans (Washington, D.C.), who advises on key tax matters, primarily in the renewable energy infrastructure space; Simon Rootsey (London), who counsels investors and downstream and midstream companies; and Shaun Lascelles (London), who offers deep knowledge of oil and gas sectors in both traditional and emerging markets.

We've continued to provide our clients with top-shelf intelligence and analysis, including regular client alerts and posts to our Speaking Energy blog. In 2019, we hosted our biannual energy briefings for clients, industry experts and the media, focused on trends in private capital, liquefied natural gas, renewable project finance and carbon pricing.

Weatherford International plc

- The informal committee of holders of senior unsecured notes of Weatherford International plc in the company's chapter 11 cases and parallel restructuring processes in Ireland and Bermuda.

Energy Litigation

Integrity Wireline

- Akin Gump served as lead counsel for Integrity Wireline in a dispute against several former executives who quit and started a competing wireline company. In the lawsuit, Integrity Wireline sought to enforce restrictive covenants and brought claims for breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, tortious interference, conspiracy and violations of the Texas Uniform Trade Secrets Act. In response, the defendants filed a motion to dismiss under the Texas Citizens Participation Act, which was denied and then appealed to the 5th Circuit. The appeal was argued on May 14, 2019 and a favorable settlement was negotiated shortly thereafter.

Laredo Petroleum, Inc.

- Akin Gump obtained a significant victory through its prosecution of counterclaims on behalf of Laredo Petroleum, Inc. (Laredo) in a lawsuit originally filed by Shell Trading (US) Company (Shell). Shell sued Laredo in Texas state court asserting claims for fraud, breach of contract and reformation arising from a crude oil purchase agreement. Shell sought damages in excess of $70 million. Akin Gump successfully developed counterclaims that Shell breached the parties' agreement and sought over $150 million in damages on behalf of Laredo. After extensive discovery and favorable court rulings for Laredo, our team secured an extremely favorable settlement requiring Shell to pay Laredo to resolve the counterclaims and to dismiss its original claim.

Quintana Minerals Corporation

- Akin Gump defended Quintana Minerals Corporation (QMC) and four related entities against a former QMC employee's claims related to bonus payments, severance pay and the valuation of restricted incentive units. The former employee filed separate lawsuits in Delaware and Texas state court, alleging nearly $2 million in total damages for alleged breaches of contract and misrepresentations. Despite initially arguing for a piercing of the corporate veil and that several individuals affiliated with QMC and the other corporate defendants were jointly liable, the plaintiff's claims against the individual defendants were ultimately dismissed. After engaging in discovery, Akin Gump secured an extremely favorable settlement of the multiyear dispute.

SRC Energy Inc.

- Akin Gump represented SRC Energy in a series of securities litigation matters stemming from a proposed merger with PDC Energy. SRC's shareholders filed suit in courts across the country, including Colorado state court, as well as the U.S. District Courts for the District of Delaware, Colorado and the Southern District of New York. Plaintiffs in these lawsuits filed claims for violation of Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act and breach of fiduciary duties among others. Akin Gump was able to obtain favorable settlements with plaintiffs in all actions, and the shareholder vote on the merger was able to proceed without any delay.
