

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
Alabama	Kay Ivey (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – April 3 Safer-at-Home Order – April 28	Stay-at-home order set to expire on April 30. Gov. Kay Ivey held a press conference on April 23 and stated that the state’s stay-at-home order would remain in effect at least through April 30. On April 28, Gov. Ivey announced the stay-at-home order would expire on April 30 and a safer-at-home order would be in effect until May 15. Gyms, theaters, bowling alleys and nightclubs will remain closed. Beaches and certain businesses will open with restrictions.	Religious services, outdoor activities, essential businesses, non-work related gatherings are limited to fewer than 10 people, must maintain a six-foot distance between individuals.
Alaska	Mike Dunleavy (R)	Gov. Health Mandates	Gov. Mike Dunleavy has ordered residents to stay at home until April 21. On April 22 Gov. Dunleavy announced Health Mandate 016 which outlines Phase 1 of his Reopen Alaska Responsibly Plan .	Indoor gatherings: up to 20 people or 25 percent of a building’s maximum occupancy. Outdoor gatherings: up to 20 people. Social or religious gatherings: encouraged to wear a face mask and say six feet apart. More details in Health Mandate 016: Reopen Alaska Responsibly Plan –Phase 1-A.
Arizona	Doug Ducey (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 30 State Reopening Executive Order – May 12	Gov. Doug Ducey issued a stay-at-home order that will expire on April 30. Update (5/15): Arizona’s stay-at-home order expired on May 15. Gov. Doug Ducey signed an executive order on May 12, implementing the state’s “Stay Healthy, Return Smarter, Return Stronger” plan on May 16. Under the new order, businesses were to encouraged to telework, schools would remain closed and in-person visits to nursing homes would remain banned. Arizona	All essential businesses and entities shall facilitate physical distancing of at least six feet.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			businesses were allowed to reopen beginning on May 8 with social distancing regulations in place.
Arkansas	Asa Hutchinson (R)	Public Health Emergency Executive Order – April 6 Directive on Resuming Dine-in Operations Order – May 11	Arkansas does not currently have a stay-at-home order. Gov. Asa Hutchinson announced on April 22 that certain non-essential procedures may resume April 27. Decisions for other businesses would be announced beginning with restaurants on April 29. Update: Effective May 4, gyms, fitness centers, athletic clubs, and weight rooms may reopen provided they meet the requirements outlined in the order. Effective May 6, barber shops, body art establishments, cosmetology establishments, massage therapy clinics/spas, and medical spas may reopen provided they abide by the requirements outlined in the order. Effective May 11, restaurant dine-in operations may resume provided seating is limited to 33 percent of total seating capacity and a number of other social distancing guidelines are followed.	Indoor and outdoor gatherings: limited to 10 people, unless a six-foot distance can be maintained. Essential businesses: maintain a six-foot distance between individuals.
California	Gavin Newsom (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 19	California currently does not have a set end date for their stay-at-home order. Gov. Gavin Newsom said he will coordinate with the Gov.s of Oregon and Washington to reopen the economy once six benchmarks have been reached.	Essential businesses must limit the number of people in a facility to ensure a minimum six-foot physical distance.
Colorado	Jared Polis (D)	Stay-at-Home Extension Order – April 6	Stay-at-home order set to expire on April 26. Gov. Jared Polis announced on April 22 that retailers will have the option to reopen with curbside pickup beginning April 27 and by May 1 will be able to host a limited number of in-store customers. Eligible businesses include hair salons, dental offices, tattoo shops and childcare facilities.	Businesses must maintain social distancing and limit the number of customers.
Connecticut	Ned Lamont (D)	Stay-at-Home Extension Order – April 10	Gov. Ned Lamont extended the state’s stay-at-home order until May 20. Connecticut is a member of the Northeastern states coalition to coordinate the reopening of the economy.	Earlier social distancing measures remain in place include closures of non-essential businesses, entertainment venues and

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
		State Reopening Executive Order – May 18	Update (5/18): Gov. Ned Lamont signed an executive order on May 18 allowing the state to begin reopening on May 20. Phase 1 of the state’s reopening includes outdoor dining to be permitted at restaurants, offices shall be permitted to open pursuant to the Sector Rules for Offices, large shopping malls and retail establishments shall be permitted to operate, and the Commissioner of Economic and Community Development may add any other businesses that may reopen. Some outdoor activities are permitted and zoos and museums are allowed to reopen with social distancing regulations. Phase 2 of the reopening plan is currently set to go into effect on June 20.	gatherings of more than five people.
Delaware	John Carney (D)	Stay-at-Home Order here and here – March 22	Gov. John Carney issued a stay-at-home order that is set to last until May 15, 2020, or only after the state reports 28 consecutive days of declining COVID-19 cases. Delaware is a member of the Northeastern states coalition to coordinate the reopening of the economy.	Shelter-in-place remains in effect. Individuals using shared or outdoor space outside their residence must practice social distancing of at least six feet from any other person. Individuals may leave their homes only for essential activities.
District of Columbia	Muriel Bowser (D) - Mayor	Stay-at-Home Order – March 30 Stay-at-Home Extension Order – April 15	Mayor Muriel Bowser extended the stay-at-home order for the District of Columbia until May 15, with the option to further extend at that date.	Residences and facilities specified in the order must implement appropriate safety guidelines including body temperature checks.
Florida	Ron DeSantis (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – April 1	Gov. Ron DeSantis reopened beaches in parts of the state for “essential activities” on April 17. The state’s stay-at-home order currently expires April 30.	Delivery or take-out services are allowed, gyms and restaurants are otherwise closed. No

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
		Phase 1 Reopening Order – April 29 Updated Reopening Order – May 14	Update (5/5): Effective May 11, barbershops and cosmetology salons that adopt appropriate social distancing may reopen. Effective May 4, restaurants and food establishments may allow on-premises consumption of food and beverage, so long as they adopt appropriate social distancing measures and limit their indoor occupancy to no more than 25 percent of building occupancy. In-store retail sales establishments may open storefronts and museums and libraries may open if they operate at no more than 25 percent of building occupancy and follow safety guidelines issued by the CDC and OSHA. Elective medical procedures prohibited by Executive Order 20-72 may resume provided they abide by the regulations outlined in the order. Update (5/21): Gov. Ron DeSantis signed an executive order on May 14 to further reopen the state. Effective May 18, restaurants and food establishments may serve patrons in indoor seating limited to 50 percent of their seating capacity, in-store retail sales establishments may operate up to 50 percent of their building occupancy, gyms and fitness centers may operate up to 50 percent of their building occupancy, professional sports venues may host training, competitions, events and games, and amusement parks may submit a reopening plan. All businesses reopening must adhere to additional safety guidelines. Additionally, Gov. DeSantis signed an executive order on May 9 allowing barbershops, cosmetology salons and cosmetology specialty salons to begin reopening.	gatherings of 10 or more people are allowed.
Georgia	Brian Kemp (R)	List of Stay-at-Home Orders and Reopenings	Fitness centers, bowling alleys, body art studios, barbers, hair and nail salons and massage therapy businesses began to reopen as early Friday, April 24. Theaters and restaurants will be allowed to open on Monday, April 27,	Some beaches and parks are closed. No more than 10 people may gather in a place and people must maintain a six-foot

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			while bars and nightclubs will remain closed for now. No local ordinance will be able to restrict openings.	distance when going out for essential services.
Hawaii	David Ige (D)	Stay-at-Home Order Extension – April 25 Eighth Emergency Proclamation – May 18	Gov. David Ige has extended the stay-at-home order through May 31. There is also a 14-day quarantine for both visitors and residents entering the state and for inter-island travelers. Update (5/20): Gov. David Ige signed his eighth emergency proclamation during the pandemic, extending the disaster emergency relief period for the state until June 30. The proclamation also includes extending the 14-day mandatory quarantine for travelers, an eviction moratorium preventing evictions from residential dwellings and a reopening plan to allow businesses to begin reopening in June. “Medium-risk” businesses, including salons and barbers, restaurants, gyms, movie theaters, houses of worship and museums will be the first to reopen with social distancing guidelines.	All persons are encouraged to wear a face covering. High risk populations should stay in their residences as much as possible. All persons shall maintain six feet of distance from all others.
Idaho	Brad Little (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – Original signed on March 25, amended on April 15	Gov. Brad Little amended the “Order to Self-Isolate” on April 15 to allow certain business and facilities to reopen for curbside pickup, drive-in and drive-thru service and for mailed or delivery services. The order is still currently set to expire on April 30. The Gov. stated some non-essential businesses may be able to reopen on May 1, but no plan has currently been released.	Outdoor activities are allowed as long as residents maintain six feet of distance. Hunting and fishing seasons can continue provided physical distancing guidelines are observed.
Illinois	J.B. Pritzker (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 21 Updated Executive Order – April 30	Gov. J.B. Pritzker has extended the stay-at-home order through May 30. Update: Effective May 1, the order more broadly defines essential businesses that are permitted to resume operations as well as allows non-essential businesses to reopen for the limited purposes of fulfilling Minimum	All residents are ordered to stay at home except for essential activities. Any gathering of more than 10 people is prohibited. Residents must maintain six feet of distance and washing hands

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			Basic Operations. In addition, all businesses that resume operations must follow social distancing requirements to ensure the health of employees and customers. Examples of businesses that may resume operations include grocery stores and manufacturing, distribution, and supply chain facilities for critical products and industries.	with soap and hand sanitizer as frequently as possible.
Indiana	Eric Holcomb (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – April 6 Updated Executive Order – May 1	Gov. Eric Holcomb extended the initial stay-at-home order through May 1. Gov. Holcomb announced elective surgeries could resume on April 27 and more announcements will be made in early May. Update: The latest executive order begins reopening the state beginning May 1. The order outlines two stages of an early plan to reopen the state. Stage 1 spans from May 1 through May 3 while Stage 2 begins May 4 and lasts through May 23. The order outlines social distancing and health guidance that applies to all businesses. During Stage 2, all retail businesses, dine-in services, and personal service businesses such as barber shops and spas will be allowed to open provided that they comply with the regulations detailed in the order.	Six feet of social distance is required for those performing essential activities. Surfaces should be cleaned regularly and frequent hand-washing is encouraged.
Iowa	Kim Reynolds (R)	Public Health Disaster Emergency Update – April 24 Updated Emergency Proclamation – May 13	Gov. Kim Reynolds issued a State of Public Health Disaster Emergency on March 17. On April 27, Gov. Reynolds announced that most of the state’s restaurants, fitness centers and retail stores could begin reopening with capacity restrictions on May 1. Update (5/15): Gov. Kimberly Reynolds signed an updated emergency proclamation on May 13 allowing businesses to begin reopening. Effective May 15, restaurants, fitness centers, gyms, malls and other retail establishments, salons, barber shops and other businesses listed may reopen provided they comply with the requirements	Gatherings of more than 10 people are prohibited. Livestock auctions of food animals with more than 25 people and all other auctions with more than 10 people are prohibited.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			outlined in the proclamation. The order extends reopening regulations to all counties in Iowa. Gov. Reynolds also announced that, effective Friday, movie theaters, zoos, museums, aquariums, auctions and wedding reception venues will reopen with some restrictions. On May 28, bars will be permitted to open at 50 percent capacity and beginning June 1, schools will be able to resume school-sponsored activities and learning.
Kansas	Laura Kelly (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 28 Updated Executive Order – May 19	Gov. Laura Kelly extended the stay-at-home order until May 3. Update (5/19): Gov. Laura Kelly signed an executive order on May 19 implementing Phase 2 of the state’s reopening plan. Effective May 22, all businesses except bars and night clubs may reopen if they comply with the requirements outlined in the order. Nail salons, barber shops and other personal service businesses may open only for pre-scheduled appointments or online check-ins; fitness centers and health clubs may open subject to restrictions; and state-owned casinos may open if they comply with a reopening plan approved by the Department of Health and Environment. Outdoor and indoor large entertainment venues, fairs, festivals, swimming pools and summer camps must still remain closed.	Persons must maintain a six-foot distance in all activities outside of the home and are encouraged to stay at home where possible.
Kentucky	Andy Beshear (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 25	Gov. Andy Beshear announced on April 22 that phase 1 of Kentucky reopening will include drive-thru testing for two weeks in Louisville and Lexington. Phase 1 will focus on gradual reopening of health care services, including reopening diagnostic radiology and non-urgent, emergent in-person office and ambulatory visits.	All essential businesses must ensure six feet of physical separation of employees and customers. Appropriate hygiene measures are required.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
Louisiana	John Bel Edwards (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 22 Notice of Extension – April 27 State Reopening Order – May 14	Gov. John Bel Edwards extended the stay-at-home order through May 16 and then will begin opening the state in three phases. Update (5/14): Gov. John Bel Edwards signed an executive proclamation on May 14 implementing Phase 1 of the state’s reopening plan. Effective May 15, restaurants, beauty shops, barber shops, shopping malls, churches, casinos, racetracks, gyms, fitness centers and other businesses not explicitly listed as being prohibited from reopening may reopen. All businesses that reopen are required to adhere to the guidelines outlined in the order. Gov. Edwards stated that if Phase 1 does not see a spike in cases, Phase 2 could begin as early as June 5.	Social distancing guidelines remain in effect across the state, including a requirement to stay at home.
Maine	Janet Mills (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 31	Gov. Janet Mills outlined on April 23 the early guidelines to reopen Maine’s economy and stated the Gov.’s office will be working with the Maine CDC to develop criteria to reopen the state. No date was announced for when businesses could reopen and the “Stay Healthy At Home Order” remains in effect through April 30. Gov. Mills extended the civil state of emergency until May 15.	Gatherings limited to 10 people. Salons, drive-in theaters and religious services, outdoor recreation, state parks, auto dealerships and carwashes are permitted to open at a limited capacity. Residents are required to wear face coverings in public places, including grocery and retail stores, pharmacies, crowded outdoor spaces and public transportation.
Maryland	Larry Hogan (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 30 Updated Stay-at-Home Order – May 6	Gov. Larry Hogan issued the stay-at-home order on March 30 and on April 24 published the state’s reopening plan, “Maryland Strong Roadmap to Recovery”. Update: Gov. Larry Hogan extended the state of emergency and stay at home order on May 6. Gov. Hogan did not announce an end date for the order, but stated that if the number of positive cases began to decline the	Gatherings limited to 10 people, six feet of distance is encouraged.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
		Updated Executive Order – May 13	state could begin to reopen as early as May 11. The order did loosen restrictions on elective surgeries and some outside activities. Update (5/13): Gov. Larry Hogan signed an executive order on May 13 lifting the stay-at-home order and moving the state to a safer-at-home initiative. Effective May 15, religious facilities, retail establishments, manufacturing businesses and facilities, and certain personal services businesses began to reopen with social distancing guidelines. Outdoor recreation establishments were allowed to reopen provided they adhere to the operating requirements listed in the order.
Massachusetts	Charlie Baker (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 31	Gov. Charlie Baker signed the initial stay-at-home order set to expire on May 4. It is expected an announcement will be made this week on whether the order is extended. Massachusetts is a member of the Northeastern states coalition to coordinate the reopening of the economy.	Gatherings limited to 10 people, unless in an unenclosed, outdoor space such as a park, athletic field or parking lot.
Michigan	Gretchen Whitmer (D)	Stay-at-Home Extension – April 24 Updated Stay-at-Home Order – April 30 Updated Executive Order – May 21	Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on April 24 extended Michigan’s stay-at-home order through May 15. Non-essential businesses including landscapers, lawn-service companies, nurseries, bike repair shops and golf courses are allowed to operate with safety guidelines. Update (5/21): Gov. Gretchen Whitmer signed an executive order on May 21 easing the restrictions on businesses and social gatherings in the state. Gov. Whitmer announced non-essential dental services and veterinarian services may reopen, but by appointment only. Retail businesses and auto dealerships may reopen Tuesday, May 26. Lifted requirements that health care providers must delay certain non-essential medical, dental and veterinary procedures statewide goes into effect Friday, May 29. The governor said gatherings of 10	All public and private gatherings of any number of people occurring among persons not part of a single household are prohibited. Individuals must adhere to social distancing measures recommended by the CDC. Any essential in-person work must be performed consistently with social distancing practices.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			or fewer people may also resume, effective immediately, as long as people continue to practice social distancing. Gov. Whitmer had signed a previous order allowing “critical infrastructure workers” to resume working and expanded the order to retail stores, laundromats, hotels and construction sites.
Minnesota	Tim Walz (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 25 Updated Executive Order – May 13	Gov. Tim Walz extended the stay-at-home order until May 4, but has allowed certain recreational activities such as golfing, hunting, boating and hiking to resume on April 18. The state’s stay-at-home order expires May 4. Update (5/13): Gov. Tim Walz signed an executive order on May 13 that rescinded the previous order and implemented a deadline of June 1 for the Minnesota Commissioners of Health, Employment and Economic Development to develop a phased plan to achieve a safe reopening of bars, restaurants and other places of public accommodation. Under the plan, restaurants will be able to host outdoor dining starting June 1, provided that social distancing is enforced. No more than 50 patrons may be seated at a time, tables must have at least 6 feet between them and parties are limited to four (or six, if everyone is in the same family). Salons will also be able to open at the start of June, given that they reduce capacity to 25 percent and have staff wear personal protective equipment. Gyms and fitness centers will remain closed, and gatherings are limited to groups of 10.	Gatherings limited to 10 individuals and six feet of distance is encouraged as much as possible.
Mississippi	Tate Reeves (R)	Shelter-in-Place Order – April 1 Safer-at-Home Order – April 24	Gov. Tate Reeves stated that once the state’s stay-at-home order expires on April 27, he plans to allow businesses to reopen. Schools will remain closed through the rest of the school year. On April 24, Gov. Reeves signed a “safer at home” order that loosened	Individuals shall maintain social distancing of a minimum of six feet distance and shall avoid gatherings in groups of more than 10 people.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			restrictions put in place by the initial order and will last until May 11.
Missouri	Mike Parson (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – April 3	Gov. Mike Parson extended the stay-at-home order through May 3.	In accordance with guidance from the CDC, individuals shall avoid gatherings of more than 10 people and maintain six feet of distance.
Montana	Steve Bullock (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 26	Gov. Steve Bullock announced on April 22 the gradual and phased reopening of the state beginning on April 26 for individuals and April 27 for businesses. Main street and retail businesses can become operational on or after April 27 if they can adhere to requirements to limit capacity and maintain strict physical distancing. Places of worship can become operational on April 26 in a manner consistent with social distancing between people who are not members of the same household. Restaurants, bars, breweries and distilleries can begin providing some in-establishment services beginning May 4.	Individuals must maintain six feet of distance and are encouraged to limit gatherings.
Nebraska	Pete Ricketts (R)	“21 Days to Stay Home and Stay Healthy” – Press Release	Nebraska does not currently have a stay-at-home order. Gov. Pete Ricketts released “21 Days to Stay Home and Stay Healthy” on April 9 and announce that rules on businesses will be relaxed beginning May 4.	Individuals are encouraged to maintain six feet of distance and limit social gatherings to 10 people.
Nevada	Steve Sisolak (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – April 1 Stay-at-Home Order Extension – April 29 Executive Order Announcing State	Gov. Steve Sisolak announced on April 1 the stay-at-home order in effect until April 30. Gov. Sisolak stated on April 21 that there is not currently a date for when businesses may reopen. Update: Gov. Steve Sisolak extended the stay-at-home order through May 15. Effective May 1, non-essential retail businesses identified in earlier directives may resume retail sales on a curbside or home delivery basis	Gatherings of individuals outside of the home is prohibited, subject to essential exceptions. Individuals must maintain at least six feet of distancing.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
		Reopening Plan – May 8	only. Businesses reopening under this provision must adopt measures to minimize the risk of spread of COVID-19, including social distancing and sanitation measures. Licensed cannabis dispensaries may engage in retail sales on a curbside pickup or home delivery basis. Update (5/12): Gov. Steve Sisolak signed an executive order on May 8 outlining the first phase of the state’s reopening plan. Effective May 9, all businesses that engage in retail sales may allow customer access in store with a maximum occupancy of 50 percent, drive-in theaters may reopen, nail care salons and barber shops may reopen, and restaurants and food establishments may provide onsite dining. All business reopenings are permitted provided that businesses adhere to the safety provisions outlined in the order. The stay-at-home order is still set to expire on May 15.
New Hampshire	Chris Sununu (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 26 Stay-at-Home Order – May 1	Gov. Chris Sununu stated on April 21 that he will likely extend the stay-at-home order past May 4. On March 26, Gov. Sununu extended the State of Emergency to May 15. Update: Gov. Chris Sununu extended the stay-at-home order through May 31 and released the state’s plan for reopening. Effective May 11, all retail establishments whose physical facilities were previously closed may open their facilities to workers, customers, and the public if they operate in accordance with the guidelines outlined in the order. On May 11, barbers, hair salons and other cosmetology businesses may open if they operate in accordance with the guidelines outlined in the order.	Individuals are encouraged to maintain six feet of distance and limit social gatherings to 10 people.
New Jersey	Phil Murphy (D)	Stay-at-Home and closure of non-essential retail	Gov. Phil Murphy signed a stay-at-home order on March 21 and there is not currently a date for the order to end.	When in public, individuals must maintain six feet of distance and businesses here and here – March 21	New Jersey is a member of the Northeastern states coalition to coordinate the reopening of the economy.	gatherings are prohibited with limited exceptions.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
New Mexico	Michelle Lujan Grisham (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 23	Gov. Michelle Lujan Grisham announced on April 22 that the state would extend the emergency public health order through May 15.	Gatherings of five or more individuals are prohibited. Individuals shall maintain at least six feet of distancing to the greatest extent possible.
New York	Andrew Cuomo (D)	Stay-at-Home Extension – April 16	Gov. Andrew Cuomo extended the stay-at-home order until May 15.	Individuals must wear a face covering when out in public and in situations where social distancing cannot be maintained. Gatherings of any size are prohibited and individuals must practice social distancing of at least six feet.
North Carolina	Roy Cooper (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 27 Updated Stay-at-Home Order – May 5	Gov. Roy Cooper extended North Carolina’s stay-at-home order through May 8. He also announced a gradual three-step phase to begin reopening the state, but stated the phases could be up to six weeks between each other until certain guidelines are met. Update: Gov. Roy Cooper signed a new executive order on May 5 to modify the stay-at-home order and begin the transition to Phase 1 of reopening the state. The order removed the distinction between essential and non-essential businesses and allows retail businesses to open at 50 percent capacity. Bars, personal care shops, gyms, and entertainment venues remain closed.	Individuals must maintain six feet of distance as much as reasonably possible and limit gatherings to 10 people.
North Dakota	Doug Burgum (R)	Public Health Executive Order – April 21	North Dakota does not have a stay-at-home order. Gov. Doug Burgum shut down schools, restaurants, fitness	Individuals are encouraged to avoid gatherings of more than 10

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
		Update Executive Order – April 29	centers, movie theaters and salons and has stated he will evaluate the status in early May. Update: Gov. Doug Burgum announced on April 29 that businesses may begin reopening starting May 1. Businesses closed under Executive Order 2020-06.3 and referenced in paragraphs 2-8 in the order may reopen at 8:00 a.m. on May 1, 2020. In-house dining may also resume on May 1, 2020. The order also provides resources for additional guidance that businesses must adhere to upon reopening.	people and maintain six feet of distance.
Ohio	Mike DeWine (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – April 2	Gov. Mike DeWine announced on April 2 a state stay-at-home order through May 1. On April 16, Gov. DeWine stated the state will begin opening in phases. Construction, manufacturing, and distribution operations may resume on May 4, as well as non-essential offices. Retailers and service companies may reopen on May 12. All reopening businesses must follow social distancing and hygiene requirements.	Maintain at least a six-foot social distancing from other individuals. Essential businesses must designate six-foot distances, have hand sanitizer available for employees and customers, maintain separate operating hours for vulnerable populations and make public their hours of operation online.
Oklahoma	Kevin Stitt (R)	Safer-at-Home Order – March 24	Gov. Kevin Stitt announced a “safer-at-home” order for adults and restrictions on businesses on March 24. Gov. Stitt announced on April 22 that beginning April 24 personal care businesses such as hair salons, barber shops, pet grooming services and nail salons will begin to reopen. On May 1st, businesses including restaurants, churches, gyms and movie theaters will begin to reopen.	Executive Order limited gatherings to no more than 10 people and prohibited visitations to nursing homes and long-term care facilities. Oklahoma Health Department uses Center for Disease Control and Prevention social distancing guidelines.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
Oregon	Kate Brown (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 23 Updated Executive Order – May 14	Gov. Kate Brown signed an executive order directing residents to stay at home which “remains in effect until ended by the Gov.” Gov. Brown announced on April 23 that non-urgent procedures would be allowed beginning May 1. Oregon joined California and Washington to coordinate the reopening of the states. Update (5/15): Gov. Kate Brown signed an executive order on May 14, allowing that a retail business not subject to paragraph 5(a) of the executive order may operate if the business complies with applicable OHA guidance beginning May 15. The order also outlines the plan for a phased reopening of Oregon.	Gatherings of more than 25 people are banned; on-site consumption of food and drinks is banned through April. All non-essential and recreational gatherings where a distance of at least six feet cannot be maintained are prohibited. Non-essential businesses are closed until further notice and those businesses that remain open must implement social distancing policies.
Pennsylvania	Tom Wolf (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 23 Stay-at-Home Order Extension – April 1	Gov. Tom Wolf announced on April 20 that once the state’s stay-at-home order expires on May 8, he plans to ease restrictions on construction operations, curbside alcohol pickup and vehicle sales. Gov. Wolf announced on April 22 the commonwealth’s plan for reopening beginning May 8. The plan includes reopening regions in three phases and will be assigned based on conditions in a county, counties or area. Pennsylvania is a member of the Northeastern states coalition to coordinate the reopening of the economy.	Executive Order defaults to Center for Disease Control and Prevention social distancing guidelines.
Rhode Island	Gina Raimondo (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 22 State of Emergency Extension – May 8	Gov. Gina Raimondo extended the state’s stay-at-home order until May 8. Rhode Island is a member of the Northeastern states coalition to coordinate the reopening of the economy. Update: Gov. Gina Raimondo signed an updated executive order on May 8 extending the state of emergency until June 8 and allowing some businesses	Gatherings of more than five individuals are banned. All non-essential retail businesses are closed. All public and private enterprises which remain open must follow Center for Disease Control and Prevention social

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			to begin to reopen. Effective May 9, all non-critical retail businesses with a physical location in Rhode Island shall be permitted to re-open for in-store pickup and limited browsing only and will be required to operate in accordance with the social distancing protocols set forth by RIDOH. Elective medical procedures and other medical services shall be allowed to resume and the Department of Environmental Management shall start re-opening state parks in a graduated manner. Gov. Raimondo did not extend the stay-at-home order which expired on May 8	distancing and hygiene guidelines.
South Carolina	Henry McMaster (R)	State of Emergency Order – April 6 Updated Executive Order – May 15	Gov. Henry McMaster signed the state of emergency on April 6 and renewed the order on April 27. Beaches can reopen according to the decisions of local officials. Law enforcement can break up groups of three or more at their discretion, including at beaches. Some non-essential stores including department stores and bookstores can reopen. Occupancy in each store will be limited to five customers per 1,000 square feet of retail space or 20 percent occupancy, whichever is less. Retail stores were allowed to reopen on April 20 with restrictions. Update (5/15): Gov. Henry McMaster signed an executive order on May 15 to further reopen the state. Effective May 18, recreational and athletic facilities such as gyms, fitness centers and spas may reopen. Effective May 18, close-contact service providers such as barber shops, hair salons, nail salons and massage-therapy establishments may reopen. Any business that elects to reopen must incorporate any corresponding industry guidelines promulgated by the CDC, DHEC or any other state or federal public health officials. Gov. McMaster also announced on May 20 that limited amusements	Maintain a six-foot separation between individuals. Emergency Order defaults to Center for Disease Control and Prevention social distancing guidelines.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			such as zoos, museums, aquarium and others may open before the Memorial Day holiday.
South Dakota	Kristi Noem (R)	Public Health Executive Order – March 23 State Reopening Plan – April 28	South Dakota does not have a stay-at-home order. Update: Gov. Krisi Noem released the state's plan to reopen on April 28. The plan encourages retail and other businesses to resume operations in a manner that allows for reasonable physical distancing, good hygiene, and appropriate sanitation.	Citizens are encouraged not to gather in groups of 10 or more and businesses must comply with Center for Disease Control and Prevention social distancing guidelines.
Tennessee	Bill Lee (R)	Safer-at-Home Order – April 28	Gov. Bill Lee issued a two-week stay-at-home order on April 1 and then extended the order by another two weeks on April 15. The stay-at-home order will expire April 30. The majority of businesses will reopen May 1 in 89 out of 95 counties. Six counties that are major metropolitan areas are planning separate reopen strategies.	Social gathers of 10 or more are prohibited and citizens are urged to wear face coverings in public. Nursing homes are closed to visitors. Businesses that are allowed to resume operation must adhere to Center for Disease Control and Prevention social distancing and hygiene guidelines.
Texas	Greg Abbott (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 31	Gov. Greg Abbot announced on April 21 that the state would allow retailers to sell items for curbside pickup, resume elective surgeries and begin reopening state parks beginning on April 24. The state's stay-at-home order expires on April 30 and retailers, restaurants, malls and movie theaters will reopen on May 1. If new cases of COVID-19 do not spike, in two weeks gyms, bars, barbershops and other businesses may reopen. On April 27, the Gov. released Texas' plan to reopen.	Executive Order defaults to Center for Disease Control and Prevention social distancing guidelines.
Utah	Gary Herbert (R)	"Stay Home, Stay Safe" Order – updated April 10	Utah has not issued a stay-at-home order, however Gov. Gary Herbert issued a "Stay Home, Stay Safe" order. Gov. Herbert announced that once the state's order expires on May 1, he plans to begin to reopen the state in three	Local officials have given different orders based on population density. Executive Order allows facilities to open up

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
		State Plan to Reopen – April 17	phases, beginning with sit-down dining, gym facilities and elective surgeries. Update: Effective May 1, the Utah COVID-19 Public Health Risk Status is moved from Red to Orange. Individuals and businesses in Utah shall comply with the Orange provisions of the Utah Leads Together Plan. Under the Orange status, limited businesses such as retail establishments and restaurant dine-in services will be allowed to resume operations provided they follow strict guidelines for physical distancing and monitor employees for changes in health	based on the Utah Department of Health protocols.
Vermont	Phil Scott (R)	“Stay Home, Stay Safe” Order – March 16 “Stay Home, Stay Safe” Order Extension – April 13	Gov. Phil Scott announced on April 17 that certain “low contact” businesses would begin to reopen with a two-person staff beginning April 20. The state’s stay-at-home order ends May 15.	Executive Order 01-20 prohibits all non-essential mass gatherings to the lesser of 50 people or 50 percent of the occupancy of a facility at the same time for social, recreational or entertainment activities, such as an auditorium, stadium, arena, large conference room, meeting hall, cafeteria, theater, bar, restaurant, gym or any other confined indoor or confined outdoor space.
Virginia	Ralph Northam (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 30 Executive Order to allow businesses to reopen – May 8	Gov. Ralph Northam issued a stay-at-home order through June 10. Update: Gov. Ralph Northman signed an updated executive order to allow businesses to slowly reopen in the state. Effective May 15, restaurants may operate delivery, take-out, and outdoor dining and beverage services only, brick and mortar retail business not listed in section C may continue to operate, fitness centers	Groups may not gather in groups of 10 or more. Non-essential businesses are mostly closed with some businesses able to operate under restrictions. Beaches are closed statewide except for fishing and exercise.

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			may reopen for outdoor activities only, and barbershops and other personal care services may reopen. All businesses reopening must comply with the Guidelines for All Business Sectors and the sector-specific guidelines.
Washington	Jay Inslee (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 23 Stay-at-Home Order Extension – April 2	Gov. Jay Inslee extended the stay-at-home order until May 4. Washington joined Oregon and California to coordinate the reopening of the states. On April 29, Gov. Inslee indicated that the order would not be lifted on May 4, but did not release new guidelines. Inslee had announced on Monday that restrictions on fishing, hunting, hiking, and golfing to prevent the spread of the coronavirus would be loosened starting May 5.	All social, spiritual and recreational gatherings are prohibited. All non-essential business are closed.
West Virginia	Jim Justice (R)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 24	Gov. Jim Justice issued the stay-at-home order on March 24 and does not currently have a set end date. On April 27, Gov. Justice released “The Comeback Roadmap”, a three-part phased outline to re-open the state.	Executive Order defaults to Center for Disease Control and Prevention social distancing guidelines.
Wisconsin	Tony Evers (D)	Stay-at-Home Order – March 24 Updated Executive Order – May 11	Gov. Tony Evers extended the state’s stay-at-home order to May 26. On April 24, public libraries, crafts stores and golf courses were allowed to reopen. Update: Effective May 11, standalone or strip mall-based retail stores with an entrance to the outside may offer in-person shopping for up to five customers at a time provided they observe social distancing requirements outlined in Section 26 of Emergency Order #28. Drive-in theaters may also open subject to the restrictions outlined in the order.	All public and private gatherings of any number are prohibited. Essential businesses must follow Center for Disease Control and Prevention social distancing guidelines.
Wyoming	Mark Gordon (R)	Public Health Order – April 3	Wyoming does not have a stay-at-home order. Gov. Mark Gordon extended statewide public health orders through	Individuals must maintain six feet of distance and are encouraged to limit gatherings. Certain non-essential

State	Gov.	State Order(s)	Description of State Order/Other Guidance	Social Distancing Guidance
			April 30 and mandated travelers are required to quarantine for 14 days.	businesses were closed and restaurants were encouraged to limit services to curbside pickup.